As Though You Didn't Know . . .

By Clinton Caldwell

In our travels about township roads we see on the average of six or eight run-over dogs every week. Of course the dogs have their own reasons, but we wonder why it is that with just acres and acres of land to roam on all sides of the highway, our four-footed friends have to venture forth onto that few square feet of lethal macadam.

Could it be that our local drivers are either too inconsiderate or just too lazy to go through the simple little motions of touching their brakes or turning their steering wheels enough to spare the life of another of the "best friends of man?"

We once saw a man run his car into the ditch to avoid striking a little mongrel dog. What was the pay-off? Well, aside from sparing the pooch's life, a guy who does a thing like that must feel pretty good inside. What do you think?

Not all township deer hunters are getting away this week, but when we stopped into Frick's the other day we found out the names of one jeepful who were: Ernie Frick, Doc Wilson and Tommy Slankard. They are going to San Luis Obispo county. . . . Into the Santos Brothers garage in Centerville we heard that John Santos and Tommy Silva also are planning to make it uneasy for deer this week They didn't say where they were going. Wherever the deer are mostess, we suppose.

Ever stop to think of the things you could do without? Driving over to Newark the other day we did. Not that it makes any difference but here they are: road hogs, "hot" music, people who begin a conversation with "I've got a bone to pick with you," women drivers who insist on tooting their horn when they go to pass—even when you're already driving with two wheels in the ditch, and last but not least, people who eat popcorn in a theater. On the other hand we go for strapless evening gowns, pay days and warm weather. Why don't you let us know your likes and dislikes?

A friend of ours who is as much of a wag as he is a slow poke, just this week suggested a slogan for that now past contest: Centerville —just two miles from Niles. . . . It's a joke, son.

We don't know if it means anything, but yesterday while we were conversing with a local merchant we couldn't help noticing what must have been a shopping list lying on his desk. It read:

Bread
Meat (chops)
Lettuce
Milk
A rope for Agnes

LATE FLASH!

At least three hunters from Centerville came in with deer, so says Kleine's. They were Charlie Wauhab, Doc Holeman and Harry Stevenson.

INCORPORATION FOR DECOTO REFUSED BY SUPERVISORS

Decoto's petition for incorporation has been declined by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors.

Reasons for the action are threefold. Containing but 147 signatures, the petition therefore lost out in its first requirement. A required percentage of property evaluation, and an inaccurate description of the boundaries of that area, afforded the two other reasons for failure of the petition.

George Janssen, supervisor for the second district, was present at the meeting and made the county board's declaration. Other distinguished guests included Judge Allen Norris, Loren Marriott, Tom Whipple, William White, George Smith and Walter Walker.

Following the business portion of the meeting, a very tasty barbecue steak dinner was served.

WHEN IS A VACATION NOT A VACATION

Twelve and one-half years without a leave of absence is record enough for any man to want to set. Postmaster Manuel Lewis of Centerville is not anxious to increase that record one whit. So he's going to take advantage of the accrued time-off coming to him beginning Monday and just laze about, here, there and everywhere.

Frankly we don't think he'll be able to stay away from the p.o., but if he should the place will be in capable enough hands. And we do mean, Phil and Polly Sousa, Dick Mendonca and Vivian Rose.

PEARCE BROTHERS NOW CAMPBELL CO.

Formerly Pearce Brothers, the Decoto plant is now known as Campbell Products Company, exchange of ownership having taken place the fore part of July.

No changes in personnel is contemplated. W. B. Cox has been placed in charge.

With apricot packing ended this week, the plant is starting on peaches at once. The plant is expected to be open the whole year round.

DECOTO NINE BEATS PUERTORICAN CLUB

The Decoto baseball team, sponsored by the Pearce Cannery (soon to be known as Campbell Products) and managed by Al Ferriera, last Sunday blasted the Puertorican Club of Oakland by a score of 18 to 0.

Louis Guterrez pitched the entire game for Decoto and performed like magic. Another Decoto laddie, Tony Cortiez, helped out, too, by getting 5 out of 5 at the plate—4 singles and a round trip.

The Puertorican Club is the same outfit that humbled Alvarado a couple of weeks ago, so now the Decotans are eager for a crack at Alvarado.

DEER NOT SAFE— OR ARE THEY?

According to Irene Harvey, who is looking after things in the office for Ed Rose, who is vacationing, about 60 hunting licenses have been issued this week to prospective deer hunters from the Irvington-Warm Springs area.

The Jolly Pharmacy in Newark, another place where licenses may be secured, reports that about 35 licenses have been issued there.

18 VETERANS ATTEND VFW MEET

Acting Chairman Bob Endsley of Hayward called the meeting to order and at least three important issues were acted upon.

A letter calling for procurement of a local charter was dispatched to VFW headquarters in St. Louis.

The need for a name was brought up, with two choices reported. They are "Township Memorial Post" and "Vallejo Mill Post."

Thirteen veterans signed up as members. They are: Ted Lira, Alex Olivera, M. C. Christensen, A. T. Williams, F. G. Rose, V. W. Nunes, J. W. Pine, L. W. Pine, W. E. Pine J. W. Perreira, B. P. Bragg, Don Lemos and George Bolis.

DE GUADALUPE INSTALLS OFFICERS

Installation of officers for De Guadalupe Institute, Y.L.I., was held Thursday, August 1, at the I.O.O.F. Hall in Niles. Miss Josephine Cummings, Institute deputy from San Leandro, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Werner of San Leandro and Mrs. Mae Avilla and Miss Gertrude Mozzetti of Irvington, installed the newly elected officers. Miss Gertrude Keller was chairman of the evening.

Mrs. Helen Rogers, chairman of the refreshments committee, was assisted by several members from Centerville: Mrs. Hary Souza, Mrs. Frank Madruga, Mrs. John Dutra, and Mrs. John Santos.

Mrs. Virgil Campagna was chairman of decorations for the meeting room.

Among the visitors was Miss Mary Foss of San Leandro, who has been recently made a grand director of Young Ladies Institute. Miss Foss will act as the institute deputy fort he coming year.

A picnic is being planner for August 29 at Hayward Memorial Park. Mrs. Fred Dias, president, has appointed Mrs. James Nunes as chairman of this committee.

On Tuesday evening, August 13, the newly installed officers will meet with the new president at her home on Thornton avenue to plan activities for the year.

WILL HOLD YOUTH RALLY SATURDAY

This Saturday, August 10, at 7:30 p.m. there will be a Christian Endeavor youth rally at Centerville Presbyterian Church.

According to Reverend Roe Lewis, a number of churches from southern Alameda county Christian Endeavor Union will be represented. Reverend Patterson of Pleasanton will be chief speaker, with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Miller of Berkeley as guests.

Song leadership will be taken over by Reverend Otis Ironmonger of Hayward.

Included in the program will be a social hour, community sing and moment of devotions.

IRVINGTON YOUTH CENTER TO REOPEN ON AUGUST 16

The Irvington Youth Center, which has been closed for three weeks to permit the refinishing of floors, will open again on August 16.

The same time as usual will prevail—Friday evenings between 7 and 10:30 o'clock.

At the next meeting, definite plans for a picnic will be made. Regular members are invited to bring friends to this meeting.

ALVARADO FAMILY INJURED SLIGHTLY

Mrs Anthony Alexander and her young daughter of Alvarado were injured slightly last Sunday when the car in which they were riding ran into the rear end of another car near San Lorenzo Village. Mrs. Alexander's father, who was also a passenger in the car, was not injured.

STILL TIME TO ENROLL IN SWIM CLASSES

The children who were disappointed last Wednesday afternoon when they went out to Elderberry Park to take swimming lessons and found that there were no instructors present, will probably have learned by this time that the reason for the cancellation of the afternoon classes was because so few children turned out for the morning classes. The schedule, as printed in last week's Register, was correct, however, as afternoon classes were originally planned; and it was only because of the unlooked-for small turn-out that the afternoon schedule was abandoned.

It is not too late to enroll your child. The only fee is the 15 cent entrance fee to the pool.

The present schedule is as follows:

Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, beginning August 7 and ending August 23:

Intermediate boys and girls, 10 a.m.
Beginner boys, 10:30.
Beginner girls, 11:00.
Beginner boys, 11:30.
Beginner girls, 12:00.

CORREA HAS BEEN BIG AID TO SCOUTS

The Troop Committee of Troop 1. Centerville, is meeting regularly at the Scout House on the last Wednesday of each month to plan the activities of the troop and administer its operation. The committeemen are: Chairman Arthur Belshaw, Secretary Dallas Paul, Anker Christianson, Manuel Correa, and Rev. E. A. Groves Jr.

Committeeman Manuel Correa has been doing a wonderful job of helping the boys run the hot dog stand at the softball games at Washington High. The committee, scoutmaster and his assistants wish to extend a vote of thanks to him for his splendid work with this project.

Recently Norman Coit came before the Board of Review. He had registered as a Scout in May and by June had passed his Second Class requirements. The committee feels that this is excellent work and shows a real and devoted interest in scouting.

When it becomes possible, a trip to Chabot Observatory is planned as well as a parents' night and a swimming outing for the boys of the troop.

BOTTLE, BOTTLE, WHO'S GOT BOTTLE?

An urgent appeal is being made by the Cloverdale Creamery to all persons with empty milk bottles on hand.

Milk supplies are sufficient but the supply of bottles is very limited.

PLEASE TURN IN THE EMPTIES!

WILLIE OSBORN, district governor of Rotary district No. 105, will pay his official visit to the Niles Rotary Club at the regular meeting next Thursday, August 15. Osborn, owner of the American Brass and Copper Company in Oakland, is a member of the Oakland Rotary.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN IRVINGTON

Working atop a sand bunker at his own gravel pit about 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Fraties lost his footing and plunged down into the bunker.

Responding to his cries for help, workmen on the ground using long sticks to try to assist Fraties from becoming lodged in the narrow chute at the bottom of the bunker.

This became impossible, however, as the trapped man's body became wedged in the less than two foot opening, and the wet sand began piling up on top of him.

Although a call was dispatched to the Dallas Paul ambulance service for a respirator, there was never any use for it, as it required nearly two hours to empty the bunker and dig the body of the dead man out.

Surviving relatives are his wife, Linnea E. Fraties, two sons, George and Arnel; a brother, Dr. E. Fraties; and two sisters, Lola Motta and Faith Peters.

Services for Fraties were held Wesdnesday, August 7, at the Grant D. Miller chapel on East 14th street, Oakland.

His body was placed in a crypt at Evergreen Mausoleum.

ALAVARADO FARM CENTER PICNICS IN HAYWARD

Chairman of the affair was Mrs. Anna Rose of Centerville. Others on the committee were Mrs. Adeline Santos of Centerville, Mrs. Bessie Borghi and Mrs. Mary Rose of Decoto, and Mrs. Mary Gastelum and Mrs. Joe Hardy of Newark.

OUR READERS WRITE . . .

Newark, California,
August 7, 1946

To the Editor:

The Reber Plan promises many things for the bay district, but close study of facts at hand prove that this plan will not bring to Washington Township the benefits which are claimed for it, in fact it will be a serious detriment to the township. It will not result in making a fresh water lake of the bay.

We all know that Alameda and Coyote Creeks and all the other minor creeks emptying into the south bay only flow a maximum of two months of the year. U. S. Engineer's reports show a runoff into the south bay from various sources, including Alameda and Coyote Creeks, of 300,000 acre feet per year, but evaporation and transpiration losses go on all year. A very conservative estimate of these losses for the south bay are 1,200,000 acre feet, making a net loss of 900,000 acre feet per year. (U. S. Department of Commerce, Weather Bureau Climatological Data shows the annual evaporation rate at Newark as 4 2/3 feet.) From this it is easy to see that the Reber Dam, as time went on, would not result in a fresh water lake but a dry lake. To remedy this Mr. Reber proposes that a channel be constructed to connect San Pablo and Suisun Bays to the south bay, and claims that the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers will not only keep up the level in the last named bays but also the level of the south bay.

This is not borne out by reports of competent authorities. The California Federal State Water Commission in 1930 recommended against a salt water barrier at Carquinez Strait, as there was not sufficient water coming down these rivers to keep up the level behind a barrier at that point. In five years of the period 1920 to 1929, the stream flow was not even great enough to take care of the consumptive demands of the delta. Add to this the evaporation and transpiration losses in the delta region, San Pablo and Suisun Bays, one can only conclude that the rivers cannot even keep up the level of these two bays and most certainly there would be no water for the south bay.

To make matters still worse, lockage for the boats passing through the dam would let in, according to government reports, 1,400,000 acre feet of salt water, so we would at best still have a brackish lake and of course this would be as valueless as it is now for either irrigation or for pumping into our gravel stratum to raise the water table.

The Reber Plan will result in a distinct loss to Washington Township. The salt industry and its allied industry, the Chemical Plant, will be out of business, resulting in a loss of approximately $1,000,000.00 payroll and about 10 per cent of the taxes in the township. Washington Township wants, not less payrolls but more payrolls.

The salt industry problem cannot be solved as simply as Mr. Reber states, that is by piping salt

Petition for Annexation To Sanitary District Reaches Hearing Stage

A petition bearing the signatures of 100 property owners adjoining the Niles Sanitary District (see legal notice on page 4 of this issue of The Register) is this week being submitted for adoption to the Niles Sanitary District.

Actual work of securing the names, begun about May 15, was done by Ed Enos.

The proposed act, if passed by the county board of supervisors, would provide for all territory known as the "Sullivan Addition," to be annexed to the present Niles Sanitary District. Specifically this area extends west of Niles to the Pacific States Steel Company and from the hills to the Western Pacific railroad track. Cost is estimated at $80,000.

The act would provide for the "formation and alteration of certain boundaries of sanitary districts in the state; for the construction of sewers and the acquisition of property thereby; the conducting of elections in such a district; the valid assessment and collection of taxes; the issuance and disposal of bonds; and, finally, the empowering of a sanitary board to make and enforce sanitary rules."

FORMER SUPERVISOR HELLWIG INJURED

An accident occurring at the Hellwig packing house at Alvarado Wednesday, sent owner George Hellwig, former county supervisor for this district, to the hospital in San Jose with a fractured hip.

The mishap occurred when a steer charged against a gate in the separation corral and the gate swung against Hellwig, knocking him to the ground.

At first it was thought that only a bad bruise had been the result, but later it was discovered in the hospital that damage of a much more serious nature had been sustained.

Hellwig is still confined to the hospital where it may be necessary for doctors to operate on him.

DECOTO NEWS

By ELSA WALKER

A very pleasant occasion was the dinner at the James Park home Sunday, August 4, in honor of the thirty-third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Park. The dinner was served picnic buffet style in the garden and consisted of ham and chicken entre with all kinds of delicious trimmings. The buffet table was very attractive with a centerpiece of a miniature woodland scene with a very handsome fabric deer lying at ease in a sedum forest at the edge of a mirror lake edged by flowery shores where two little playful bear were much in evidence. These lovely little animals were the gifts of the group to Mr. and Mrs. Parks.

A very pleasant feature of the occasion was the Spanish music furnished by the Park's neighbor, Mr. Peter Hernandez, and his father-in-law, Mr. J. G. Boreno. The program consisted of instrumental music on the guitar and accordion and of two solos by Mr. Hernandez. and was continued throughout the dinner. This was very much appreciated by all present.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Park, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Scott and son Danny of Alvarado, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kilmer of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gayley and son of Irvington, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Gayley, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morgan, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Park, and their grandson, Jimmie Morgan and wife, of Decoto.

Mrs. Harold Wallace is convalescing at home from an operation which she underwent at the Alameda Hospital recently. She is improving and hopes to be as good as new soon.

Mrs. Edith Diaz, one of our very popular staff of the Decoto post office, is back to work after a vacation at Santa Cruz.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown write from Auburn that they have their little granddaughter with them now and that she is improving in health by leaps and bounds. They have become boosters for the Auburn climate as Mr. Brown recovered from a bronchial cough of several years standing in less than a month but they still have their lonesome moments for their many Decoto friends.

water to the salt marsh. The cost of pumping alone, not including maintenance, depreciation, etc., would make this business unprofitable.

Mr. Reber promises bathing beaches as a result of his plan. Mud flats will never make bathing beaches. He promises also a duck hunter's paradise. Changing the bay from salt water to brackish water or even fresh water, if it were possible, would not result in more ducks. Any old desident in the county will tell you that years ago when the general duck population was great, the bay area had plenty of duck hunting even though the bay was salt water.

There is ample proof that the Reber Plan will not benefit Washington Township, but will be a detriment and it should be opposed by all residents in the township.

JOS. C. Buchen,
Vice-President, Leslie Salt Company.

Berkeley, California,
August 1, 1946

Editor, Township Register:
Dear Sir:

I note in the July 26th issue of your paper a letter by Mr. W. D. Patterson of the Alameda County Water District in relation to the Reber Plan.

Mr. Patterson apparently feels that under the Reber Plan he will not be called upon to pay for the water that will be made available to him.

When the Central Valley Water Project is built, all those benefitted will be required to pay their share. The water users could not possibly afford to pay for the water they will be using, except for the fact that by-product power developed at the dams will pay a very substantial part of the cost. As far as the Alameda County Water District is concerned, they will undoubtedly have to pay their share of the tremendous cost of the Reber Plan.

I question very much that the water would be cheap enough so that they could afford to use it. I suggest the District investigate the cost of this water before committing themselves in support of the plan.

Very truly yours,
C. W. SCHEDLER

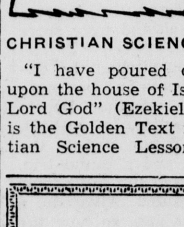
SOMETHING FROM NOTHING! Whether it's in attic, scrap bag or junk yard, there are always possibilities of a bright future for many a thing thrown into discard!

PAGING CINDERELLA!... 'Member those camp stools whose covers gave way on the last trip out? Turn them into luggage racks for the guest room by stripping them of the canvas seats. Varnish, stain or paint the wood. For each, make three two-inch wide strips of chintz or other material harmonizing with the room, doubled, and neatly seamed. Firmly tack them across the frames, one in the middle, one near each end. A good idea to bring into the living room—as a tray holder. The strips may be of needle point, cross stitch or some of the room's upholstery or drapery material. Quite easily it may become a permanent coffee table!

ORANGE CRATE MAGIC... There's an orange crate on the kindling pile, isn't there? Maybe two. And you could use bed-side tables. Line them with oilcloth of the desired color, cut, fitted and pasted in place. You'll need a yard of 46-inch oilcloth for lining each crate. Make gathered skirt pieces of chintz, cretonne or a gay print, and tack to the top of the sides and back (it doesn't have to go clear around). Then make a top cover with a 5-inch all-around frill to thumb-tack or baste into place. The shelves can hold books, magazines, bed-side radio, water jug. Imagine them red oilcloth-lined, with red and white checked cotton material, and crisp frills of white muslin, organdy or eyelet embroidery. It will take 2 to 3 yards of the checked material, depending upon width, and ½ yard material for ruffles for each table.



By connecting the two covered crates with a piece of heavy glass or a long board, covered and beruffled, this something-out-of nothing trick becomes a dressing table. Now you need a dressing table stool! Using a butter tub, nail lid to bottom. Make cushion of cotton batting, stitched to fit. Dress in ruffly skirt with big ribbon sash.

FLASH IF IT'S UP TO MAMMA TO MAKE MINOR REPAIRS about the house, fit up a breadboard with a household carpentry kit—hammer, screw driver, pliers, wrench—and hang it by screw eyes on a kitchen or entry wall. Painting tool handles and edge of board makes it quite attractive.

TOMATO VEGETABLE SOUP

10 lbs. ripe tomatoes
6 medium-size carrots
3 medium-size onions
½ bunch parsley
4 stalks celery
3 medium-size turnips
2 large green peppers
3 tbsps. salt
3 cups water

Scald, peel and cook tomatoes in large kettle until soft, about 30 minutes, stirring frequently. Put other vegetables through food chopper, using coarse knife. Add salt and water. Cook vegetables in another kettle until tender, about 15 minutes. Combine cooked vegetables and tomatoes and cook slowly about 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Pour immediately into sterilized jars, filling to ½ inch from top. Adjust lids. Process in pressure canner for 60 minutes at 10 lbs. pressure. Makes about 6 quarts. Before serving, add 1 to 2 cups water per quart and boil for 10 minutes.

PLUM BUTTER

2 lbs. ripe plums
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed or granulated sugar
1 tsp. ground cloves
1 tsp. ground allspice
1 tsp. ground cinnamon

Wash plums; pit; cut in quarters. Cook with a little water until tender. Sieve and cook until thick. Add sugar and spices; cook about 1 hour, stirring frequently. Pour into hot, sterilized glasses; paraffin. Makes eight 8-oz. glasses.

CORN RELISH

10 ears corn
½ medium-size head cabbage
2 large onions
2 sweet green peppers
3 sweet red peppers
½ cup chopped celery
¼ tsp. tumeric
2 tbsps. mustard
2 cups vinegar
1 cup sugar
¼ cup salt
¼ cup flour

Cut corn from cob. Wash and drain cabbage; peel onions; stem and seed peppers; grind. Mix sugar, salt, flour, tumeric and mustard in a large kettle; stir in vinegar gradually; heat to boiling, stirring to prevent lumping. Add vegetables and simmer for 30 minutes, stirring frequently. Pack in hot, sterilized fruit jars; seal at once. Makes 6 to 8 pints.

V-J Day—Plus One Year

Until last year the month of August enjoyed virtually no distinction from the standpoint of American history.

Independence Day comes in the month before it, Labor Day in the month after it; two great Presidents have birthdays in February; Inauguration Day was in March for nearly a century and a half and now January has that distinction; World War I began in April; the Japs bombed Pearl Harbor in December; Memorial Day is observed in May, Flag Day in June, and Thanksgiving in November.

But August was noted for little else than its heat—until 1945. But then it came into its own historically in no uncertain fashion. On August 6 the Atomic Age was formally begun with the blast that leveled Hiroshima. On August 8 came the Nagasaki explosion. Then on August 14 came the Day of days, the long-sought-for, long-fought-for day when the Japs finally called it quits.

Now a year has rolled by and historic August is here again. We've done a lot of living in that year. We've seen Japan taken over and reorganized by General MacArthur, we've waited hopefully and vainly for China to settle her internal conflict, we've heard atomic bombs 4 and 5 explode at Bikini, we've seen our country fumble its way toward recovery—without getting very far.

We've witnessed the burial of OPA and the exhuming of the corpse, we've watched the 11-million-man armed force shrink to about one-tenth of its wartime size, and we've listened to the world pray for lasting peace while it prepares for another war. Yes, we've lived a lot since last August.

Our hope is that the year between now and next V-J Day the world will experience more on the constructive side, more that will contribute to a greater harmony among nations, more that will give us reason to hope for a better future and a better world.

Production is the Answer

In a recent Chicago speech Eric Johnston, movie executive and former president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, declared that production is the one big answer to America's economic ills and ailments.

Said he, "What threatens production threatens our whole economy. It threatens our future. It threatens our hope of an ever-rising living standard; our hope of an ever larger number of people making more things and thereby able to buy more things."

Although his point of view is neither new or startling and is shared by a good many others in various walks of life, it deserves the earnest contemplation of many more Americans.

Unfortunately, some of us feel that it is more important to get more money than to produce more goods. We want higher wages for less work. The desire to increase one's income is quite natural but the combination of more and more money and less and less production can eventually spell serious inflation.

Take the case of Hungary. Money is so plentiful there that no one bothers to pick it up off the street. Yet, Hungary is bankrupt. Why? Acute shortage of goods and commodities. Regardless of how this shortage was produced the fact remains that too much money and too few products have caused the trouble.

Maybe such economic chaos "can't happen here" but the only sure defense against it is full production. But as Mr. Johnston pointed out, this calls for the elimination of all hindrances to production—feather-bedding, make-work practices, slowdowns, stoppages, strikes. If these are eliminated output is bound to soar and inflation vanish.

America achieved miracles in war production. It can repeat in peace production. The latter is hardly less vital than the former.

GENERAL EISENHOWER'S REPORT

Mention has already been made of the skill and devotion of our service forces whose efforts, both in the field and at home, made an essential contribution to our victory. To them, and to the civilian workers of factory and farm who provided us with unstinted means, we are forever indebted. Our enormous material superiority gave us an unchallengeable advantage over our foes. While Germany's own war potential crumbled, that of the Allies rose to heights unprecedented. No army or navy was ever supported so generously or so well. Never, during the entire campaign, were we forced to fight a major battle without the weapons that were needed.

More important even than the weapons, however, was the indomitable fighting spirit of the men of the Allied nations who wielded them. The courage and devotion to duty which they exhibited throughout the campaign, in the grim days of the Ardennes counter-offensive as well as in the excitement of the dash across France and later the advances into the midst of Germany, were unsurpassable. It was the spirit that had enabled them to withstand the shocks of Dunkirk and Pearl Harbor which brought us at the last to Lubeck, to Torgau, and to Berchtesgaden.

Underlying this invincibility of spirit was the confidence in Allied unity and the justice of the common cause which permeated all who were engaged, directly or indirectly, in the struggle. The comradeship which had been first exemplified in North Africa carried us to new triumphs in northwest Europe. Within my own Headquarters the American and British personnel worked harmoniously together, obliterating all distinction of national outlook in their zealous service to a single organization, while in the field of battle the men of the Allied armies fought shoulder to shoulder under my supreme command.

Those civilian volunteers who shared the rigors and dangers of campaign that they might brighten the existence of our men have the assurance of our warmest gratitude.

The United States of America and Great Britain have worked, not merely as allies, but as one nation, pooling their resources of men and material alike, in this struggle against the forces of evil engendered by Hitler's Germany. In the Expeditionary Forces which it has been my privilege to lead, both in the Mediterranean Theater and in Northwest Europe, an Allied experiment unprecedented in the history of the world has been carried out with decisive results.

BUD LOYOLA IN RICHFIELD STATION

The Richfield Service in Alvarado has this month been taken over by Bud Loyola, late of Uncle Sam's fighting forces.

Loyola, who was attached to the Second Filipino Battalion, is a master mechanic and he is prepared to handle all kinds of repair jobs and tune-up work in addition to his regular gas and oil and lubrication service.

THEATER NINE TURNS BACK ROBEY REALTORS

Plenty of grade A hurling was seen Sunday in Alvarado when Naharro's Theater nine turned back the Robey Realtors of Oakland by a score of 7 to 2.

Both Harold Alameda, manager Joe Jacinto's new pitcher, and curve artiste, Amaral, of the realtors, were hot as three dollar pistols.

Alameda sent 14 batters away hitless, allowing but one small bingle; while Amaral struck out seven men.

Temperatures as high as 130 degrees are not uncommon during the summer in Death Valley National Monument.

Mrs. Baxter, who will remain alone on the job, has been with the board since its inception in October, 1940.

Mrs. Jolliff started Monday on her new job with Schuckl Company, Niles, where she will be in charge of the office.

VETERANS, HERE'S NEWS OF HOSPITAL CARE

* * * * * * * * *

QUESTIONS ABOUT COLLEGE ANSWERED

Many veterans and their relatives do not have a clear idea of the basis for admission of ex-servicemen to a Veterans Administration hospital.

Treatment of veterans whose disabilities are a result of their service in the armed forces naturally receives top priority in any VA medical institution after emergencies. However, the law says other veterans may be given care if there is sufficient room, and they are unable to pay for private treatment. Women veterans have the same medical benefits as men.

The proportion of veterans admitted to VA hospitals with disabilities not related to service is considerably greater than those whose injuries were incurred in line of military duty. During one recent month, only 16.4 per cent of all admissions were veterans with ailments linked to service with the armed forces. In Arizona, California, Nevada and Hawaii, 3,740 veterans of the 4,052 admitted to VA hospitals during the same month were suffering from non-service connected disabilities.

Question: Are there any VA hospitals set aside for women veterans only?

Answer: Not at the present time, but there are wards and rooms designated for women patients in many VA hospitals.

Q. I have been released only recently from the service. Is it too late to enroll for the fall term in college?

A. It may not be, although many schools are turning away applications. Your best chance is in one of the smaller institutions. In any event, you should apply to the Veterans Administration without delay for a certificate of eligibility if you have not already done so.

Q. If a lender turns down a veterans application for a guaranteed loan, is there anything the veteran can do?

A. A lender has the perfect right to refuse a loan. However, the fact that one lender is not interested does not indicate necessarily that another may not be. See another lending institution.

Q. Can a veteran going to night school receive money allowances from the VA to help meet living expenses?

A. Not if he is working full time during the day. If he is only working part time, he may apply for subsistence allowance and may be eligible for part of the regular payment, according to the number of school hours he is taking.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

WITH LOIS JUSTUS

Quite a large group of Firemen and their families, the base ball club and families and the rooters for the Mission boys on baseball nights, met at the I.D.E.S. Hall on Saturday evening and enjoyed huge luscious barbequed steaks with Chef Frank Vargas, assisted by Eddie Azevedo, during honors.

Everyone enjoyed the good time of dancing, visiting and eating. The Firemen are now head over heels in preparations for the celebration next year and at each meeting the plans for the future are worked on. The officers of the Firemen are: Jack Pereira, chief; Tom Cunha, assistant chief; Frank Vargas, secretary; and Antone Santos, treasurer. George Rodrigues is the honorable president.

Little Marjorie Ann White of Niles, daughter of Bernice White, is the guest of little Brenda Tate for a whole week. The two little misses are having a grand time being very grown up and shopping for Mrs. Tate. They are half past six.

Mrs. Mildred Steel and son, Douglas, are now with Mr. Arthur Steel at his saw mill in Cool, California. He has been at the mill for a long time but due to the fact that there was no house for Dougie and his mother to live in till recently, they had been making their home with Grandad and Grandmo Santos, maternal grandparents, here in the Mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Druin and son of Stockton visited some of their friends on Sunday here in the Mission, going on to Santa Cruz where they will spend a week deep sea fishing and swimming, and vacationing in general.

Sporting the first new Chevrolet in the Mission are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Buck and son, Wynn. Some time ago Tom Santos bought a new used Dodge, but not a shiny brand new black coupe like the Buck's.

Friday evening at the home of Miss Olive Hyde in the rose arbor of her lovely grounds, a group of Mission women met to discuss and make plans for forming a club to help out in the forthcoming one hundred and fiftieth anniversary celebration which will probably be held next June.

During the evening it was decided that this first effort should be called a committee which was named the Mission San Jose Festival committee. Some dissention has arisen and at the next general meeting a lot of new plans and more instructive discussion will take place. The next meeting will be called when two committee women have completed their examination into certain business matters, and all the women of the Mission who are interested in making this affair of the celebration a success are cordially invited to attend.

During the evening officers were selected to run temporarily as follows: Chairman Lois Justus, vice-chairman, Hazel Millard; secretary, Edna Jibson, and Hortense Cunha, treasurer.

Guests for Sunday dinner at the Floyd H. Cross home in Menlo Park were his mother, Mrs. Elsie Wilcox, a friend, Glenn Bottenberg, A.M.M. 1c; his sister, Mrs. Lois Justus, and later in the day his brother, Daniel K. Cross and family of Durham Road, Irvington, arrived and helped in the eating of home made ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Amaral and sons of Newman arrived Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lawrence and daughters, to spend the week-end.

Sunday visitors at San Francisco and playland were Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Phillips and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mendonsa and daughter, Kathy, Mrs. Mamie Dutra, her sister Mrs. Lottie Vallier, Mrs. Grace Mayer, Richard and Evelyn Meyer, Virginia Lawrence and Nonie Fernandez. A lovely picnic lunch was enjoyed by all.

MODEL PLANE CLUB WILL SELECT NAME

Two new names have been added to the growing roster of Newark Model Flyers' Club. They are Eugene Buker and Manuel Avila, both of Pleasanton.

Due to the fact that a number of local model flyers are attending meets in Livermore and Richmond, there will be no meeting this Sunday in Centerville. Next scheduled meet is for August 18.

However, club members are meeting this Friday evening (August 9) at the home of Wes Sears to select a name for the club.

And follow instructions in the Ball Blue Book. To get your copy send 10c with your name and address to—

At the present time my proud parents are residing at 850 Archer Street, Monterey, Calif. I therefore submit a cordial invistation to all my Mom's and Pop's many friends and relatives to visit and become acquainted with me at the above Monterey address.

Thinking Things Over . . .

By VIVIAN BATMAN

A phone call comes this week from Mrs. "Chick" Burdick in Oakland, asking us to please send The Register as "Chick", who has been confined to his home from illness for several months, wants to keep up with things down here. The irrepressible former sales executive at Graham Manufacturing is now allowed to get up out of bed for three 30-minute periods a day. You people who are depressed about your own troubles, how would you like to have nothing to look forward to each day but three 30-minute periods out of bed?

Well, maybe you would at that!

In typical Niles fashion, there failed to be any kind of a showing last Wednesday when the Red Cross swimming instructor came to Niles to give FREE swimming lessons to the children. The instructors were disappointed in the poor turnout.

I have heard mothers in Niles complaining of the lack of advantages here in this small town for their beloved offsprings. Yet when the advantages are offered they pay no heed to them.

It isn't too late. Send your child today, or on the very next day that instruction is to be given. (Schedule is printed elsewhere in this paper.)

I was in Carmel for a few days last week. When I lived in Carmel (umpty-ump years ago) the boards in the sidewalks on the main street used to fly up and hit you in the face if you didn't step just right. Now Carmel's main street is lined with shops whose designs are no doubt the answer to many an architect's dream, and the only things that fly up and hit you in the face are the prices of the too, too elegant gifts in the too, too elegant aforesaid shops.

At the risk of being accused of trying to usurp Doncan Hines' place in contemporary American life, I am continuing with my discussion of "places where I have eaten." If you have never had dinner at Cademartori's in Monterey, you have a treat in store for you. Cademartori's, in one of Monterey's oldest adobes, has atmosphere. What's more important, it has good food. Better miss a couple of shows, though, before you plan to eat there——

Interesting remark I overhead lately: "Imagine, there I was in the hospital having a baby and who should send me a great big bouquet of roses but an old beau of mine!"

Retort from female companion, "My dear, that must be true and lasting love—when an old beau will send you flowers at such a time as that!"

Interesting thing I heard: A young lady, entering one of Carmel's shops, spied movie comedian Hugh Herbert. Just the sight of him sent her off into peels of laughter. Her laughter was infectious. Herbert began to laugh too, which goes to prove that all movie comedians are not sourpusses off the screen.

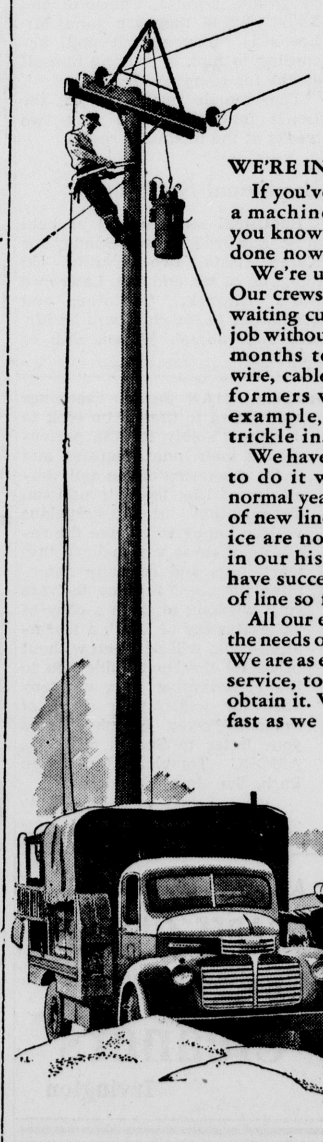
Line Crews are Putting 'em up as fast as Materials Come In



WE'RE IN THE SAME FIX YOU ARE!
If you've tried to build a house, repair a machine or buy a new refrigerator, you know how tough it is to get things done nowadays.
We're up against the same difficulties. Our crews are trained to rush service to waiting customers, but they can't do the job without materials. And today it takes months to get lumber, transformers, wire, cable and other essentials. Transformers we ordered a year ago, for example, are just now beginning to trickle in.
We have more to do and less materials to do it with than ever before. In a normal year we built around 1000 miles of new lines. Pent up demands for service are now greater than at any time in our history. Despite obstacles, we have succeeded in building 1200 miles of line so far this year.
All our energies are devoted to filling the needs of our customers, old and new. We are as eager to give service, adequate service, to all applicants as they are to obtain it. We'll be coming your way as fast as we get materials.
Most everything costs MORE today— but the cost of ELECTRICITY is DOWN.
